

School-Based Supports for Immigrant Youth: Essential Evidence-Based, Trauma-Informed Interventions

Diana Franco, LCSW-R, DSW Candidate

New York University Silver School of Social work

Creating & Sustaining Trauma Sensitive Schools - ACCSW NOLA 2017

Tulane University

January 31, 2017

10:15 am – 11:45 am

Case Questions

1. What interventions/or essential components of an intervention would you use to support this student? In individual? Group? Would you include the family – How? why or why not?
2. Taking the student's cultural background into consideration, how would you implement culturally responsive, trauma informed, interventions? Why did you choose those interventions?
3. What challenges might you face? What steps would you take to overcome these obstacles?
4. What systems in and out of the school would you engage or collaborate with? How?